

Guadalupe Mountains National Park

50th Anniversary Program Schedule

Saturday, September 24

All Day – Free Admission to National Parks for National Public Lands Day

7:45 am to 10:45am - National Public Lands Day Volunteer Project

Join us for a volunteer event on September 24th celebrating National Public Lands Day! National Public Lands Day was created to celebrate the connection between people and green space in their community. Meet at the Pine Springs Visitor Center on the patio next to the flag pole between 7:45-8am. For more information, please visit <https://www.volunteer.gov/s/volunteer-opportunity/a093d00000dmU8AAI/national-public-lands-day>

9 am – Birth of a Park: Hiking Through McKittrick Canyon

Join a park ranger at the McKittrick Canyon Visitor Center at 9 am for a 5-mile guided hike to Pratt Cabin within McKittrick Canyon, exploring early efforts to preserve this landscape and create a national park. Hikers are reminded to wear closed toed hiking shoes and to carry at least a gallon of water. This hike will cover nearly 5 miles with minimal elevation change, and may last 3-4 hours.

10 am & 2 pm – A Walk Through Time: Guided Hike on the Pinery

Meet at the Pine Springs Visitor Center patio at 10 am and 2 pm for a 30-45 minute ranger guided walk along the Pinery Trail, exploring how people have interacted with this environment. The Pinery Trail is a paved and accessible trail, is around a 3/4 of a mile round trip.

2 pm – At the Waters Edge: Life in the Guadalupe Mountains Before the Park

Meet at Frijole Ranch at 2 pm for a 30-45 minute ranger-guided program exploring the history of human habitation around the springs near Frijole Ranch. The Frijole Ranch History Museum will be open from approximately 1:30 pm to 4:30 pm.

2 pm – Protecting the Park

Between 2pm and 4pm, drop by the McKittrick Canyon Visitor Center parking lot to meet some of the members of the park's law enforcement and resource protection staff. Learn about how the work they do to carry on the legacy of preserving this landscape.

7 pm – Gazing into the Past: The Night Sky Over the Guadalupe Mountains

Most visitors experience Guadalupe Mountains under the light of our nearest star – the sun. But on a clear night with no moon, the park is bathed in starlight from across the millennia. Meet at the Pine Springs Amphitheatre at 7:30pm for a ranger facilitated night-sky program.

Sunday, September 25

9 am - A 260 Millionth Anniversary: Exploring the Permian Sea

Join a park ranger at the McKittrick Canyon Visitor Center for a 1-hour, 1-mile hike along the McKittrick Canyon Nature Trail and learn about the Permian geology of the Guadalupe. Closed toed hiking shoes and a water bottle are strongly recommended.

10 am & 2 pm – A Walk Through Time: Guided Hike on the Pinery
